

Book Note

Norman Marsh

11 ATENEO L.J. 88 (1961)

The International Commission of Jurists, The Rule of Law in a Free Society (1959). The Book contains a complete report of the proceedings held by the International Commission of Jurists in New Delhi, such convention focusing on defining the concept of the Rule of Law in the context of modern legal practice. It involved four committees dealing with the relationship of the concept of the Rule of Law with that of the Legislative, the Executive, the Judicial and the Criminal Process.