SUBJECT(S): POLITICAL LAW

KEYWORD(S): SUPREME COURT, LECTURE

This Lecture is part of a series dedicated to Chief Justice Andres R. Narvasa. Justice Melencio-Herrera takes the opportunity to note the numerous accomplishments of the former Chief Justice, with a keen focus on his accomplishments within the arena of legal education. The Lecture is divided into parts which highlight the various accomplishments and developments the Narvasa Court achieved or at least sought to achieve. Among the discussed topics were: heightened interest in reform measures, legal education reforms, establishing a uniform law school curriculum, instituting a Continuing Legal Education program pending approval, enacting judicial education reforms, judicial education programs, and even creating and expanding an electronic database of Supreme Court decisions and issuances.
