

Book Note

8 ATENEO L.J. 191 (1958)

AMBROSIO PADILLA, EVIDENCE (1958). The Book is reflective of a thorough preparation before it is published, providing for a list of cases decided by the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals, all of which one may say as having been meticulously selected. The purpose of the Author in writing the Book arose from his perceived imperative need to produce a thorough work that could be of great help to every reader. As such, the Book contains cases and interpretations of laws. It also includes verbatim quotations of principles regarding Evidence lifted from case decisions. Finally, footnotes are provided to aid the reader in the task of further research.
