KEYWORD(S): ATENEO LAW JOURNAL, 35TH ANNIVERSARY, EXCELLENCE

This Editorial was actually then Editor-in-Chief Antonio M. Bernardo's speech given on the occasion of the 35th Anniversary Celebration of the Journal and the Induction of its editorial staff on 20 September 1986. The address recognizes and honors the men and women who have steered the Journal, cultivating and strengthening its tradition of excellence through the years. Although the publication has come a long way, it still has far to go. But drawing inspiration from their predecessors, the Author is confident that the tradition of excellence will stay alive and will be successfully passed on in the coming years.
