

Some Reflections on Constitutional Authoritarianism

Claudio M. Teehankee, Sr.

20 ATENEO L.J. 1 (1976)

TAG(S): POLITICAL LAW, CONSTITUTIONAL LAW, AUTHORITARIANISM

This Article is a copy of what was delivered by the then-Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Claudio M. Teehankee, Sr., at the First Gregorio Araneta Memorial Lecture at the Ateneo de Manila University College of Law on 9 December 1975. It embodies the author's thoughts, observations and reflections on martial law, in light of constitutional provisions and jurisprudence.
