

A Letter to a Young Ateneo Lawyer

Deogracia T. Reyes

3 ATENEO L.J. 223 (1954)

SUBJECT(S): LEGAL PROFESSION

KEYWORD(S): LEGAL PROFESSION, LAWYER, OATH

The Letter, written by Dean Deogracia T. Reyes of the Ateneo College of Law, appeals to the young Ateneo lawyer to use the knowledge that he has gained in school in order to stay true to his attorney's oath. It reminds the lawyer of his duties to his country, to the courts, to his clients, and to his brothers in the profession. It envisions a truly Catholic lawyer who sees the legal profession as a way of life that must be cultivated and honored.
