

To Administer Justice

Lorenzo R. Relova

27 ATENEO L.J. I (1982)

TAG(S): LEGAL AND JUDICIAL ETHICS, LEGAL PROFESSION

This Address focuses on the need to develop judges and lawyers who are driven by the virtues of honesty and conscientiousness in the performance of their duties. Consequently, it provides that the relationship between the judge and the lawyer should be primarily characterized primarily mutual respect, and that the judiciary must always have in mind the speedy and fair administration of justice.