

Principle 21 of the Stockholm Declaration: A Customary Norm of International Environmental Law

Maria Pia M. Altea

41 ATENEOLJ. 429 (1997)

SUBJECT(S): INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW,
ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

KEYWORD(S): ENVIRONMENTAL LAW, INTERNATIONAL LAW

This Note aims to provide a survey of the status of International Environmental Law after the Stockholm Declaration. Initially, International Law concepts are introduced and discussed. The Author also discusses the main sources of International Law. Next, the Author gives a background on International Environmental Law. A background on said subject is made in light of the Pre-Stockholm Declaration Period. The Stockholm Declaration is then discussed. Principle 21 provides the basic International Law rule when it comes to the environmental responsibilities of States. The Author submits that this Principle has a customary norm of International Law.