

Francisco: Criminal Procedure and Forms

Fernando Grey, Jr.

I ATENEO L.J. 57 (1951)

SUBJECT(S): CRIMINAL PROCEDURE, REMEDIAL LAW

KEYWORD(S): RULES OF COURT, RIGHTS OF THE ACCUSED

The Book Review states the purpose of the book as written by Vicente J. Francisco: to help two conflicting rights avail themselves of the compendium on the law of Criminal Procedure in this jurisdiction. Grey concludes in this Review that the book was written to serve the purposes of the accused, bringing more emphasis on his rights under the law and the Constitution, than on other aspects of the law.
