

Legacies in Civil Law from Justice Arsenio P. Dizon and His Peers

Justice Ricardo C. Puno, Sr.

46 ATENEO L.J. 613 (2001)

SUBJECT(S): SUPREME COURT, CENTENNIAL, JUSTICE, LECTURE

KEYWORD(S): JUSTICE, DIZON, CENTENNIAL

This is the 13th Lecture in the Supreme Court Centenary Lecture Series delivered in commemoration of the Centennial of the Supreme Court of the Philippines. Justice Arsenio P. Dizon was the principal honoree of the lecture. The Lecture begins with comments on the writing style of Justice Dizon and memories of him by his peers.

The Lecture testifies to the legal scholarship and brilliance of Justice Dizon in the fields of Family Law, Property, Succession, Obligations and Contracts, and Damages. The Lecture chronicles this through examining Justice Dizon's ponencias.