

The Church, the State, and the Christian Lawyer

Jaime Cardinal L. Sin

29 ATENEO L.J. 11 (1984)

SUBJECT(S): CHURCH, SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND STATE

KEYWORD(S): CHRISTIAN LAWYER

This is a speech delivered by the Archbishop of Manila, Jaime L. Cardinal Sin, before the Ateneo de Manila University Law School during the Ateneo Law Bulletin Lecture Series III, an event hosted by the Ateneo Law Journal.

Primarily, the Speech discusses three key topics. The first concerns the role that lawyers who are at the same time members of the Christian community perform in society. The second revolves around the support that the Church is able to provide them. Lastly, the third discusses the principle of separation of Church and State.
